The image features a minimalist, abstract composition. On the left, a dark grey, curved shape overlaps a vertical tan band. A thin black horizontal line extends from the tan band towards the right. Below this, a black line curves downwards and to the right, crossing the horizontal line. On the right side, a light-colored wood-grain surface is positioned above a vertical tan band, which is further defined by a dark grey vertical strip. The background is a light, neutral tone.
